

Starting Early, Starting Smoothly: Positive Discipline for Young Children with

Dr. Neal Horen

Dr. Horen is the Research Instructor, Center for Child and Human Development and Director of the H.O.Y.A. clinic at the Center for Child and Human Development at Georgetown University. He is interested in clinical and policy aspects of the emotional development of young children. He works on policy issues at the National Center on Children's Mental Health and leads efforts for social skills development and violence prevention in rural communities. He is also the leader of a State Infrastructure Grant (SIG) Project, School-Based Mental Health, Early Childhood Mental Health, Program Sustainability.

This session will focus on common discipline issues that arise with preschoolers, including aggression, social skills, tantrums and problem-solving.

Where: McShain Large

When: 12-1PM: Thursday, September 25, 2008

The presentation is free and requires no reservation. All GU Faculty, Staff and Students are welcome. If you have any other questions or concerns, please contact Sue 7-3599 or Sandy 7-2409

Wellness Programs

Faculty and Staff Assistance Program, Department of Human Resources