

A SIMPLE PLAN TO GET ORGANIZED DURING THE HOLIDAYS

Do you have overflowing closets? Do your sofas serve as shoe racks? Does your office look like it has been bombed?

Have no fear, Donna Cameron is here. She is here to sort you out – your wardrobes, your closets, your home and your office!

Donna Cameron, PhD, Assistant Professor and Director of Service Learning is not limited to Georgetown. She is the founder and president of DCN Organizing Consultants, LLC, and member of the National Association of Professional Organizers. She specializes in clutter repair, closet organization, and workshops on getting organized at home and work.

DETAILS:

when: Tuesday, December 5, 2006, 12 - 1 PM

where: McShain Large - McCarthy Hall (across from Donovan Hall)

cost: FREE, No Reservation Needed

For further information contact Sandhya Wilhelm at 687-2409/2396

Faculty and Staff Assistance Program, Department of Human Resources