

Brenda Roane and Liza Smith Present

Ways to Give that are Inexpensive

Bring a personal touch to giving gifts. Learn creative and inexpensive ways to gift this holiday season!

Brenda Roane, Payroll Manager, Hoya Staffing is famous among her colleagues and various departments on campus for her hand-made jewelry. She has exhibited at the FSAP Crafts Day Fair fall 2006 and GU Day Spring 2007. She will show us how to make simple and creative necklaces, bracelets and earrings.

Joining Ms. Roane would be Liza Smith, Systems and Data Management Analyst, University Registrar. Ms. Smith will show us how to knit a pair of socks or a hat in two hours! She has displayed this talent to a sincerely surprised audience at the FSAP Crafts Day Fair fall 2006. Let her show you how to make a special gift for your friends and family this year.

Also, accompanying Ms. Roane and Ms. Smith is Mito Parabot, Executive Assistant, Law Center Dean's Office. Ms. Parabot was also at the FSAP Crafts Day Fair fall 2006. her presentation was well received both at the Law Center and here on Main Campus. She will show us how to make cards to give as gifts or for our use this holiday season.

Time: 12-1PM: Thursday, November 1, 2007

Location: Mc Shain Large/Lounge (McCarthy Hall)

Event is Free. No Reservations Required. All GU students, faculty and staff are welcome. For more information, contact Sandy 7-2409 or Nicole 7-1771.

Wellness Programs Fall 2007

Faculty and Staff Assistance Program, Department of Human Resources